Jennifer Saunders has nearly 40 years of experience defending professionals across the legal, financial, real estate, insurance, and engineering sectors. Certified by the California Board of Legal Specialization as a Legal Malpractice Specialist, she provides clients with strategic counsel on issues such as errors and omissions claims, technology disputes, privacy concerns, media conflicts, and contract disputes.

Jennifer provides practical solutions encompassing pre-claim evaluations, litigation management in state and federal courts, arbitration proceedings, and counsel on potential disciplinary investigations and matters. She also has extensive experience handling claims related to family law matters, and she frequently shares her insights through articles and speaking engagements.
