Kali Campbell is a civil litigation lawyer with more than a decade of experience. She advises insurance companies and their policyholders on coverage and claim-related issues, including defending and counseling carriers and their insureds in first-party and third-party litigation. Kali also handles real estate and lending litigation on behalf of servicers and lenders. She is involved in all phases of litigation and ensures her clients are informed throughout the process.

Prior to joining Hinshaw, Kali spent six years as in-house counsel for one of the largest non-standard auto insurance companies in the U.S. While there, she honed her insurance litigation skills and served as a supervising attorney managing a team of insurance litigators on a broad range of first- and third-party litigation matters.
