

Lauren N. Kus

Associate

151 North Franklin Street
Suite 2500
Chicago, IL 60606
312-704-3596
lkus@hinshawlaw.com

Lauren Kus focuses her practice in the defense of personal injury and employment matters, including the defense of motor vehicle accident, construction, and premises liability cases. She is involved in all phases of the litigation process including research, discovery, pleadings, motions, briefs and trial.

Prior to joining Hinshaw, Lauren was a law clerk with the firm. During law school, she was a legal extern at a Chicago firm, and worked as a research assistant to Loyola Adjunct Professor Richard Devine. Lauren was also named a Summer Fellow in 2014 by the Performance Management and Budget Office of Cook County, and clerked in the Torts and Federal Civil Rights Division of the Cook County State's Attorney's Office.

Honors & Awards

- Loyola University Chicago School of Law
 - Bohemian Lawyers Association of Chicago Scholarship
 - Loyola Academy Scholarship
 - Polish-American Advocates Society Scholarship

Community/Civic Activities

- Loyola Academy President's Leadership Council, 2022
- Georgetown University Alumni Admissions Program, Interviewer, 2013 – 2020

Practices

Complex Tort & General
Casualty

Education

J.D., Loyola University Chicago
School of Law, 2016

B.A., Georgetown University,
2012

Admissions

Illinois

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit

U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois