Mariam Chubinidze is a financial services attorney who focuses on creditors' rights and bankruptcy-related matters, including both liquidations and reorganizations. She represents a wide range of creditors, including national and regional financial institutions and loan servicers, in both state and federal proceedings. Her practice also extends to commercial litigation, where she advises clients on navigating complex legal challenges.

Mariam's trips to over 30 countries inform her perspective in providing nuanced, tailored, and client-focused legal solutions in U.S. consumer financial matters.

Personal

Beyond her legal practice, Mariam is a certified Bar Method instructor, an avid reader, and a singer who's never met a karaoke mic she didn't like. A born and raised New Yorker, she delights in playing tourist in her own city and is always on the lookout for the perfect almond croissant, whether in a neighborhood café in New York or a Paris patisserie.
