For nearly two decades, Rebecca Martino has represented individuals, insurers, and companies of all sizes in state and federal court cases involving bad faith, insurance coverage, catastrophic injury, and real estate matters. Her practice focuses primarily on bad faith litigation, real estate matters, and complex insurance coverage, including litigation, preparation of coverage opinions, advising insurance companies on fraud investigations, and policy drafting. She has also successfully handled appeals in bad faith litigation and insurance coverage cases. Rebecca's experience, negotiation skills, and pragmatic approach enable her to effectively resolve cases for clients.
