Sherief Morsy concentrates his practice on insurance coverage litigation and defense. He handles a variety of claims, including lawsuits and arbitrations for cedents and reinsurers, cyber and privacy issues, and ensuring reinsurance agreements effectively address evolving risks in data protection and cybersecurity. Sherief has extensive experience managing complex civil litigation in both state and federal courts.

Before joining Hinshaw, Sherief litigated complex civil actions, including securities fraud and consumer fraud class actions, and environmental torts.
