Tatiana Delogramatic focuses her practice on general liability and healthcare law, representing clients in matters involving personal injury, construction, employment, and insurance defense.

In the healthcare sector, she advises hospitals, physician groups, skilled nursing facilities, specialty pharmacies, and other healthcare providers on regulatory obligations, quality and equity initiatives, and federal and state reporting requirements. A certified Healthcare Compliance professional, Tatiana also represents managed health plans and insurers in disputes from inception through trial, integrating her combined litigation and regulatory experience.

Tatiana brings a strong background in complex civil litigation in both Europe and the United States. She previously practiced at a leading Silicon Valley law firm. She also gained in-house experience at Google, managing government inquiries and data privacy compliance, providing her with unique insight into how organizations navigate regulatory scrutiny and safeguard sensitive information.

Drawing on her cross-practice experience, Tatiana guides clients through complex disputes and investigations and helps them develop compliance and risk management strategies that are aligned with operational goals.
