Zachary Feldman concentrates his practice on commercial litigation and defending insurers in complex coverage and bad faith matters.

He began his career at Hinshaw as an intern, where he gained invaluable litigation experience. While in law school, Zachary interned for the Honorable U.S. Magistrate Judge Ryon M. McCabe of the Southern District of Florida. He was actively involved with the Nova Law Review, initially serving as a junior associate and later advancing to lead articles editor. He also participated in the Nova Moot Court and the Nova Trial Association.
