Hinshaw Attorneys to Present at Firm-Sponsored LeadingAge Illinois 2025 Annual Meeting & Expo

July 21-23, 2025
Schaumburg, Illinois

Hinshaw attorneys David Alfini, Aimee Delaney, Adam Guetzow, Frank Mazzagatti, and Amanda Tzivas are slated to speak at the LeadingAge Illinois 2025 Annual Meeting & Expo, which is sponsored by Hinshaw. The event, which takes place July 21–23 at the Renaissance Schaumburg Convention Center, will cover key legal and regulatory developments in the senior living industry.

Session Overviews

July 21

Frank kicks off the conference with a presentation titled "Captivating the C-Suite: A Workshop for Senior Living Visionaries," which discusses strategies to implement long-term goals within an evolving regulatory environment.

July 22

Adam and David lead two sessions:

- "Arbitration Agreements – A New and Ever-Changing Frontier"
 - A look at recent changes in Illinois law, enforceability concerns, and how to craft effective arbitration agreements for the admissions process.
- "The Power of Legal Privilege – The Long Term Care Quality Assurance Act"
 - An exploration of available legal privileges for providers, required steps to assert them, and common misconceptions around confidentiality in long-term care.

July 23

Aimee and Amanda then co-present two employment-focused sessions:

- "Labor & Employment Update: What Every Senior Living Employer Needs to Know"
 - Insight into 2025 state and federal employment law updates, compliance strategies, and emerging workplace trends.
- "Mental Health and the Workplace: An Employer's Guide to Compliance"
 - Guidance on navigating mental health-related legal obligations, managing accommodations, and implementing best practices.
