September 12, 2025

Boston, Massachusetts

Chicago-based partners William Schiller and Ian Wagreich will serve as panelists at the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) 2025 Fall Conference and Webcast in Boston, Massachusetts, on September 12, 2025. Ian is also a member of this year's Conference Program Committee, and he will deliver opening remarks at the conference.

William will speak on a panel titled "Identifying Employment-Based Options for People in Humanitarian Status, and Vice Versa."

The panel will explore:

- Immigration options for paroled professionals
- Options for DACA recipients, TPS holders, and parolees
- Green card eligibility for asylees
- Importance of maintaining status and lawful entry
- Managing conflicts
- Travel recommendations

Ian's panel will present on the topic of "The Client-Centered Firm: Service as a Business Growth Strategy." The session will focus on how to enhance client experience, build loyalty, and turn matters into a source of referrals and long-term success.

Key panel takeaways will include:

- Communicate fees clearly
- Prioritize client focus and efficiency
- Use feedback to improve services
- Track marketing performance
- Plan effectively
