

Events

Appleton Lunch and Learn Series - Conducting Title IX Investigations

September 24, 2014
Appleton, Wisconsin

For universities and school districts, mishandling sexual assault or harassment investigations can jeopardize student safety and lead to government scrutiny and public relations nightmares. The pressures faced by schools to get these investigations right are mounting as media attention grows. Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to present this complimentary lunch program featuring Lora Zimmer, a trained Title IX Investigator. Learn how to conduct thorough and equitable investigations into complaints of sexual assault, sexual harassment and other civil rights violations.

This program will cover:

- Title IX overview
- Best practices for handling civil rights investigations
- Standards of proof
- Interview skills
- Patterns of behavior of victims and offenders
- Confidentiality issues

Date & Time

Wednesday, September 24, 2014

Noon to 1:00 p.m. CDT

15-Minutes Welcome/Networking Window Followed by 45-Minute Presentation

Lunch will be served

Location - UPDATED!

Due to the positive response and number of registrants, this program will be held in the Nathan Marsh Pusey Room of Lawrence University's Warch Campus Center. Details below.

Nathan Marsh Pusey Room

Warch Campus Center

Lawrence University

711 E. Boldt Way

Appleton, WI 54911

Click here to download a campus map. Parking is available on the corner of Washington Street and Meade Street or at the Emmanuel United Methodist Church on the corner of College Avenue and Meade Street.

Service Areas

Civil Rights and Constitutional
Litigation

Government

Registration & Questions

Space is limited and registration is required. Click here to register. Please contact Shelly Flunker at sflunker@hinshawlaw.com or 920-380-2068 if you have questions.

Save the Date!

Thursday, November 13, 2014 - Labor & Employment Update

This program will provide a summary of recent developments in labor and employment law with special attention to the NLRB's expanding agenda, wage and hour litigation, and unemployment insurance eligibility. Attendees will receive practical information to apply in their own policies, practices, and procedures.