

Events

National Webinar - Conducting Title IX Investigations

November 11, 2014

National Webinar

For colleges, universities and school districts, mishandling sexual assault or harassment investigations can jeopardize student safety and lead to government scrutiny and public relations nightmares. The pressures faced by schools to get these investigations right are mounting as media attention grows. Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to present this complimentary webinar featuring Lora Zimmer, a trained Title IX Investigator. Learn how to conduct thorough and equitable investigations into complaints of sexual assault, sexual harassment and other civil rights violations. This program will cover:

- Title IX overview
- Best practices for handling civil rights investigations
- Standards of proof
- Interview skills
- Patterns of behavior of victims and offenders
- Confidentiality issues

Who Should Attend

Title IX Coordinators and Investigators, School District Administrators, Affirmative Action Coordinators, University/College Deans of Students, Insurance Professionals Overseeing Title IX Claims

Date & Time

Tuesday, November 11, 2014
1:00 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. Eastern
12:00 p.m. to 1:15 p.m. Central
10:00 a.m. to 11:15 a.m. Pacific

Location

National Webinar

Log-in instructions will be sent to registered participants the day before the webinar

Continuing Legal Education

CLE credit is pending in California, Illinois, Missouri and Rhode Island. A certificate of completion will be made available to participants requesting CLE credit in all other states. Please note, in order to receive full credit for attending this webinar, the registrant must be present for the entire session.

Service Areas

Civil Rights and Constitutional
Litigation

Government