Is Your Company Battle Ready?

January 14, 2015

National Webinar

Join us for a webinar on risk management and business lessons through the lens of military strategy. The presentation will be led by Conrad C. Nowak - co-chair of Hinshaw's national Alarm and Security Services Practice, and a U.S. Army veteran.

The webinar will address lessons from a military perspective that transfer to the alarm and security industry. Questions that will be explained include:

- Where is the alarm and security service industry today from the perspective of law?
- What is the basic standard of care in a negligence action?
- Why is a litigation plan important in the event of a significant loss or crisis?
- Why is an established electronic storage process necessary to your business?
