Website Law: What Every Organization Needs to Know About Ownership, Public Accessibility, Liability and More

June 5, 2018
Webinar

Hinshaw partners Kristen Perkins and David Levitt will present a webinar titled "Website Law: What Every Organization Needs to Know About Ownership, Public Accessibility, Liability and More," on Tuesday, June 5, 2018 from 12:00 – 1:00 PM Central. In their presentation, Perkins and Levitt will explore copyright law as applied to website and content ownership, ADA compliance, and other relevant issues that apply to websites. The program is ideally suited for a variety of individuals, including: business owners, in-house counsel, HR directors and their staff, IT directors and their staff, marketing directors and their staff, and website development (and related) vendors.
