John le Carré novel or CLE? Hinshaw duo discuss the deep and complicated legal issues involved in the Mueller investigation

August 29, 2018

James R. Thompson Center, Chicago IL

Hinshaw attorneys Conrad C. Nowak and Kenneth E. Yeadon are scheduled to present a CLE on August 29th, 2018, as part of the Lunchtime Seminar Series.

The duo will discuss foreign interference into U.S. elections, the significance of the Foreign Agents Registration Act, and the indictments filed to date as a result of Special Counsel Robert Mueller's investigation into alleged Russian interference in the U.S. 2016 Presidential Election.

Very few have had the opportunity to be actively engaged in the Congressional and Department of Justice investigation. Come join two Hinshaw attorneys who have such experience and are able to comment on the deep and complicated legal issues surrounding the investigation and prosecutions.

CLE title: "Into the Hornet's Nest: Election Interference, Foreign Agents Registration Act, and the Special Counsel's Indictments"
