Global Access Lawyers to Present Webinar on "Can insurance rise to the challenge of climate change?"

September 28, 2022

Virtual Event

Global Access Lawyers is pleased to present a special webinar discussing to what extent insurance can, or should, be a leader in the journey towards net zero carbon emissions.

The program features a fireside conversation, full of analysis and insight, between Rt. Hon Stephen Harper, 22nd Prime Minister of Canada, and Bruce Carnegie-Brown, Chairman of Lloyds, with questions posed by Peter Hastie, Managing Editor of The Insurer.
