

Banking & Finance

Hinshaw attorneys have decades of experience counseling banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions. Individually and collectively, they help tackle complex and general transactional, regulatory and dispute resolution activities.

Many Hinshaw attorneys have served in business and public service positions. Our ranks include a former Chief Counsel for the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation's Division of Banking; former general and in-house corporate counsel to, and board members of, financial institutions; a founder of community banks, venture capital firms and other financial institutions; CPAs; and former business persons engaged in various industries. Our legal and non-legal experience, in combination with the personal, partner-level attention that we provide, allows us to forge enduring relationships with our clients that add value to their businesses.

Business and Regulatory Assistance

We help financial services companies with the full range of business activities. Specifically, we:

- Advise on the full range of securities-related issues
- Aide with a wide variety of collection and loan workout matters
- Assist with all types of commercial lending issues, including preparing all forms of commercial lending documentation
- Assist with federal and state law compliance issues, including providing representation before agencies; develop regulatory and statutorily compliant forms, procedures, products and advertising for traditional and non-traditional products and services; and draft legally compliant documents
- Counsel on bankruptcy issues
- Develop compliance-related activities
- Draft offering documents
- Organize and secure regulatory approval for bank holding companies

In addition to representing businesses before the full range of federal and state regulatory agencies, we also assist our clients with the examination process concerning various applications. Subjects that we routinely assist with in this regard include: electronic funds transfer, equal credit opportunity, funds availability, truth-in-lending and usury.

Corporate Organization and Expansion Assistance

We comprehensively represent clients in the establishment of new banks and other financial institutions. Our assistance includes handling all regulatory
