Kevin Sido's Guidebook Referenced in ABA Article About Effective Use of Construction Experts

August 28, 2017

Kevin Sido – a Chicago-based partner in the Professional Responsibility, Professional Liability & Risk Management practice at Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP – was quoted in an article by Brian Neuffer titled "On Corporate Counsel's Desk: Effective Use of Construction Experts: An In-house Perspective," that was published in the ABA Journal's Summer 2017 Edition of Under Construction. Neuffer's article provides insight on how attorneys can most effectively use experts in construction cases.

Specifically, Neuffer cited excerpts from Sido's guidebook "Architect and Engineer Liability: Claims Against Design Professionals," currently in its 4th edition. Among the cited excerpts are insights on how an expert can help in a construction case, why you should involve the expert early, the importance of treating your expert as a trusted advisor, allowing sufficient time to prepare for depositions and trial and addressing payment in advance.
