Sixth Edition of Scott Seaman and Jason Schulze Insurance Law Treatise Published By Thomson Reuters

December 19, 2017

Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Thomson Reuters has published the Sixth Edition of Allocation of Losses In Complex Insurance Coverage Claims authored by Scott M. Seaman, a Chicago-based partner and co-chair of the firm's National Insurance and Reinsurance Services Practice Group, and by Chicago-based partner Jason R. Schulze. This edition of the treatise is available as an e-book in addition to the traditional hard copy book.

This marks the seventeenth consecutive year that this authoritative work has been updated. The treatise addresses some of the most important and challenging issues confronting insurance and reinsurance practitioners and professionals today. It offers comprehensive treatment, driving contemporary insurance claims and coverage litigation, as well as reinsurance cessions and arbitrations.

Written by experienced practitioners, this authoritative work is cited by courts across the country, used by counsel, and relied upon by insurance professionals. It provides easy-to-follow explanations, analysis of the relevant policy language and case law, and useful insights and references. It includes these features and benefits:

- Updated 50-state compendia of allocation decisions and trigger-of-coverage decisions
- Analysis of the various allocation methodologies, allocation to the policyholder, impact of insurance unavailability, and developments with respect to the selective-tender rule
- Discussion of the impact of a policyholder's bankruptcy and an insurer's insolvency
- Decisions on professional liability, directors and officers liability, and other claims-made policy issues
- Consideration of reallocation among insurers through "other insurance" clauses and contribution claims Discussion of coordination of coverage between claims-made and occurrence-based contracts
- Review of stub policy, policy extension, and multi-year policy issues
- Tracking of developments regarding number-of-occurrence decisions
- Examination of defense obligations, coverage for defense costs, and rights of reimbursement
