

News

Hinshaw's Gretchen Harris Sperry Reappointed by the Illinois Supreme Court to the Character and Fitness Committee

December 21, 2017

The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Gretchen Harris Sperry of the firm's Chicago office was reappointed by the Illinois Supreme Court to serve another three-year term on the Committee on Character and Fitness of the Illinois Board of Admissions to the Bar. In this role, Ms. Sperry is responsible for evaluating the moral character and general fitness of applicants to practice law in Illinois.

Ms. Sperry is a partner in the Government Practice Group and maintains a diverse practice that focuses on the legal issues that arise at the intersection of law, politics, and government. She is a graduate of Loyola University Chicago School of Law (J.D.) and the University of Wisconsin at Madison (B.S.). She is licensed to practice in Illinois, the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

Service Areas

Government

Offices

Chicago