

News

Wendy Chang Reviews the Latest Overhaul of California's Ethics Rules in Daily Journal Column

May 21, 2018

Wendy Chang—a Los Angeles-based partner and member of the Lawyers for the Profession® group at Hinshaw—discusses the latest overhaul of California's legal ethics rules, which go into effect on November 1, 2018. In an article titled "The new conduct rules: a snap shot," Chang explains how these changes will affect California lawyers. With this update, California's existing 46 rules will now become 69 rules.

Read "The new conduct rules: a snapshot," on the California Lawyer Daily Journal website

Service Areas

Professional Liability