Hinshaw Attorney Maria Calderon Named Leadership Council on Legal Diversity Fellow

April 9, 2018

The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Maria Calderon was recently named to the 2018 Fellowship Class of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD). The LCLD—of which Hinshaw was a founding member in 2009—exists to improve the legal profession's diversity and inclusion performance. Members include managing partners of prominent U.S. law firms as well as the general counsel of major corporations.

Calderon is the eighth Hinshaw attorney recognized as a Fellow. Prior firm inductees include Ophir Johna, Diane Webster, Nabil Foster, Jenny Wang and David Alfini. As a commercial transactions attorney, Calderon represent clients in a variety of matters, including those involving real estate, business transactions, corporate law, estate planning and international law.

Calderon is a graduate of the University of Miami School of Law (J.D.) and the Universidad Argentina John F. Kennedy (Abogada, Law Degree).
