Connie Montoya Named to NAWL Board of Directors

July 20, 2018

Connie Montoya—a New York-based partner and member of the Consumer Financial Services and Labor & Employment groups at Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP—has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the National Association of Women Lawyers (NAWL). Since 1899, NAWL has advocated for the equality of women under the law by providing leadership, a collective voice and essential resources to advance women in the legal profession. Connie will also retain her role as the Co-Chair of NAWL's Diversity Committee.
