Hinshaw's 2018 Diversity & Inclusion Mid-Year Review

August 23, 2018

The national law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce the publication of the firm's 2018 Diversity & Inclusion Mid-Year Review. The report showcases Hinshaw's commitment to fostering a diverse and inclusive workplace — and to do our part in the broader community at large. We've taken an active role in sponsorships and pipeline development and are excited to share our progress on these fronts.

"We push not just for ourselves, but to honor those that came before us and for the generations that will come forth from the advancements we have gained," said Diversity & Inclusion Partner D.L. Morriss. "We are not content to merely arrive; we must expand."
