Hinshaw Contributes to 2019 Annual Insurance Review

January 24, 2019

Insurance is a global business, presenting cross-border claims challenges and underwriting opportunities. Hinshaw and Culbertson's Insurance Services Practice Group recognizes the importance of collaborating to provide our clients the information, representation, and tools needed to serve their global interests. RPC—with offices in London, Hong Kong, Bristol and Singapore—is a firm with which Hinshaw has been collaborating closely.

RPC publishes an annual insurance review. The recently released 2019 review is a succinct compendium of key developments of 2018 and outlook for 2019 in the United Kingdom as well as in Asia, Australia, Europe, Latin America, Middle East and Africa and the US across a wide range of coverage lines. This year, Hinshaw and Culbertson contributed the section on key 2018 developments and outlook for 2019 in the United States. We think you will find this to be a useful resource.
