Cassidy Chivers Moderates Panel on the Updated California Professional Rules of Conduct

January 25, 2019

Hinshaw partner Cassidy Chivers moderated an MCLE Seminar hosted by the Conference of California Public Utility Counsel (CCPUC) and Women in Public Utilities (WIPU) on January 24, 2019 in San Francisco. Titled "I'm Just Here for the Ethics Credits: Discussing the New California Rules of Professional Conduct and the CPUC's Rule 1.1," the program addressed the updates that became effective on November 1, 2018 and their impact on legal and non-legal professionals alike.

More information on the seminar is available on the CCPUC website: <https://ccpuc.wildapricot.org/event-3211274>
