Hinshaw Announces Election of Eight New Partners

July 1, 2019

The national law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce the election of eight attorneys as new partners of the firm, effective July 1, 2019. Located in seven of the firm's offices throughout the U.S., these new partners reflect Hinshaw's commitment to long-term client relationships and prioritizing the client's success by providing a depth of sophisticated legal advice and counsel.

"We are very excited to welcome these lawyers to the partnership. In addition to making us stronger as a firm and helping us serve our clients for many years to come, this highly talented group of individuals showcases our ongoing commitment to recruit and develop skilled, committed, and innovative legal professionals," said Firm Chairman Peter Sullivan.

The new partners are:

- Andrew Collinson – Product Liability – Tampa
