

News

Federal Magistrate Judge Phillip J. Green Profiled by Hinshaw's Craig Liljestrand in The Federal Lawyer Publication

July 31, 2019

Hinshaw partner Craig Liljestrand recently profiled the Honorable Phillip J. Green, Magistrate Judge, U.S. District Court for the Western District of Michigan. The profile was published in the July/August 2019 edition of the Federal Bar Association's The Federal Lawyer magazine.

Liljestrand, who is a member of the FBA, is a complex mass tort and product liability attorney with extensive experience handling toxic torts and environmental litigation. Before joining Hinshaw, he was a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Doyle A. Rowland in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Michigan, a court in which he is now admitted to practice. Recognized for his litigation and trial skills, Liljestrand also has a regular column with the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin entitled "Toxic Tort Talk."

Read the full profile \(PDF\)

Attorneys

Craig T. Liljestrand

Service Areas

Complex Tort & General
Casualty

Offices

Chicago