Peter Hancock reported on Schmadeke's first board meeting as chair. At the meeting, Schmadeke said that "maintaining [public] confidence must undergird everything we do. Achieving and preserving the integrity of the gaming industry in Illinois will be at the heart of my tenure on this board, and based upon what I know I believe that also applies to the board as a whole and to the staff. We will undertake our responsibility as effectively and as efficiently as possible, but we will not compromise on issues of integrity."
