Esther Seitz Appointed by the Illinois Supreme Court to Serve on the ARDC Review Board

December 10, 2019

The Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission (ARDC) of the Supreme Court of Illinois announced today that Hinshaw attorney Esther Seitz has been appointed to serve a two-year term on the ARDC Review Board, effective January 1, 2020. The ARDC assists the Court in the regulation of the legal profession in Illinois.

Seitz previously served on the ARDC Hearing Board. The Review Board is composed of nine members, all of whom are lawyers appointed by the Illinois Supreme Court. The Review Board sits in panels of three and considers appeals from reports of the Hearing Board, which presides over the hearings of disciplinary, disability, and reinstatement cases.
