Client Success: Hinshaw's Donald Mrozek Provides Strategic Advice to New Chicago Law Firm Boutique

February 18, 2020

The Chicago Daily Law Bulletin reported today on the establishment of a new governmental and real estate boutique firm. Called Elrod Friedman LLP, the new law firm consists of a group of former Holland and Knight attorneys. The firm is led by partners Steven M. Elrod and Peter M. Friedman.

In the Bulletin article, Elrod discussed how he and the other attorneys consulted with Hinshaw partner Donald L. Mrozek with regard to the process of establishing the new firm. Mrozek is the former chairman of Hinshaw (1989-2015), and currently chairs the firm's Consultants and Coaches for the Profession® practice, which provides a series of business advisory services to law firms.
