

News

Hinshaw's Tricia Pride Selected to 2020 Fellowship Class of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity

April 6, 2020

The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Tricia Pride, a partner in the firm's Los Angeles office, has been selected for the 2020 Class of Fellows and Pathfinders of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD). The LCLD—of which Hinshaw was a founding member in 2009—exists to improve the legal profession's diversity and inclusion performance. Members include managing partners of prominent U.S. law firms, as well as the general counsel of major corporations.

As a Fellow, Pride will participate in a "year-long, in-depth program devoted to relationship-building, in-person training, peer-group projects, and extensive contact with LCLD's top leadership and the best teachers in the business."

Pride advises both private and public companies in employment litigation issues, including wage and hour, Americans with Disability Act claims, and workers' compensation defense.

She is a graduate of Pepperdine University School of Law (J.D. and Masters in Alternative Dispute Resolution) and California State University at Los Angeles (B.A.).

Service Areas

Labor & Employment

Offices

Los Angeles