

News

Robert Finley Unpacks the "Twisted Puzzle" of a Workers' Compensation Case Involving Alleged Double Identity

June 18, 2020

Hinshaw's Robert Finley published an article titled "Seeing Double: The Inextricably Intertwined Case(s) of Mr. Centeno a/k/a Mr. Morales" in the Illinois State Bar Association's Section on Workers' Compensation Law Newsletter. In the article, Finley explores the "interesting and paramount" case of a workers' compensation petitioner with an alleged double identity. He reviews how the case presented a "twisted puzzle" that tested multiple issues, including the scope of Commission powers, award enforcement procedures, and additional compensation for penalties and attorney fees.

"Seeing Double: The Inextricably Intertwined Case(s) of Mr. Centeno a/k/a Mr. Morales," was published in the May edition of the Illinois State Bar Association's Section on Workers' Compensation Law Newsletter.

Attorneys

Robert J. Finley

Offices

Chicago