

News

JD Supra Names Hinshaw Attorneys Top Authors in 2021 Readers' Choice Awards

April 1, 2021

The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce the firm has been recognized with Top Author recognition in the 2021 JD Supra Readers' Choice Awards.

Hinshaw received recognition in both the "Insurance" and "Cybersecurity" categories, with the following firm authors receiving recognition for visibility and engagement achieved in 2020.

Judy Selby was rated the #1 author overall in Insurance, with Scott Seaman also among ten attorneys nationwide to receive recognition as a top insurance law author. Selby was also rated a top author in the cybersecurity category.

The Readers' Choice Awards recognize top authors and firms read by executives, in-house counsel, media, and other professionals on the JD Supra platform during 2020. The awards are based on reader data and focus on total visibility and engagement among readers from many industries interested in the day's key topics. More information on the Readers' Choice Awards here.

Hinshaw published client advisories on a series of insurance topics in 2020, including coverage of COVID-19 related business interruption litigation, proposed business interruption legislation, computer fraud, ransomware and phishing coverage claims, privacy claims, and choice of law disputes, among other issues. Subscribe to the firm's "Insights for Insurers" alerts and "Insights for Insurers: Cyber Coverage" alerts to receive their thought leadership directly in your inbox.

Attorneys

Scott M. Seaman

Service Areas

Privacy, Security & Artificial Intelligence

Offices

Chicago