

News

Judy Selby Discusses Pandemic-Related Changes to Privacy and Data Security Laws

May 5, 2021

Hinshaw attorney Judy Selby presented at an American Bar Association Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section program titled, "Cybersecurity in a Pandemic 2020 World: Lessons For 2021" on May 5, 2021. Selby and her co-panelists discussed significant changes in privacy and data security laws and regulations that have come during the COVID-19 pandemic, developments in data security and privacy cases, and how these events affect cyber insurance and incident response.

For more information, visit the event website.