

News

Hinshaw's Ed Lenci Published in ARIAS-U.S. Quarterly on Using The New York and Panama Conventions When a Third Party Sues an Insurer

September 15, 2021

Hinshaw partner Ed Lenci provides a deep dive into the complex world of international arbitration under the New York and Panama Conventions, in an article published in ARIAS U.S. Quarterly (3rd Quarter 2021). Titled "Invoking a Policy's Arbitral Provisions When a Third Party Sues the Insurer," the article discusses whether the arbitral provisions of an insurance policy can be invoked when a claimant sues a tortfeasor's insurer and the dispute falls under the Conventions. The article also includes tips on drafting compliant agreements to arbitrate.

Read the full article \(PDF\)

"Invoking a Policy's Arbitral Provisions When a Third Party Sues the Insurer," was published by ARIAS U.S. Quarterly, 3rd Quarter 2021.

Attorneys

Edward K. Lenci

Offices

New York