

News

Joshua Vincent named a 2022 BTI Client Service All-Star MVP

February 9, 2022

The national law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is delighted to announce that partner Joshua G. Vincent has been named a 2022 BTI Client Service All-Star MVP. Based on in-depth, independent interviews conducted by The BTI Consulting Group with top general counsel at companies ranging in size from $700 million in revenue to the largest companies in the world, this list recognizes attorneys identified by those general counsel as "delivering the absolute best levels of client service ... amid all the changes and unexpected events — they stand tallest." MVPs have been named a Client Service All-Star by corporate counsel in consecutive years.

The survey cited the following client feedback about Vincent:

- "Josh might be the best appellate attorney that I know."
- "Talking with really smart attorneys like him is one of the best parts of my job."
- "Josh is a trusted advisor."
- "Josh is extremely responsive to our needs."
- "He adds value with his flexibility."

Vincent was one of only 129 attorneys nationwide selected as a Client Service All-Star MVP for 2022. He was also named a BTI Client Service All-Star in 2013, 2016, and 2020. 565 attorneys nationwide were selected as a BTI Client Service All-Star for 2022. In his BTI All-Star profile, here is how Vincent describes his philosophy of client service:

"Good listening has always been mission critical. And while being highly attuned to client business concerns remains a priority, a genuine interest in their health and well-being, physically and mentally, has become the cement that binds us."

The full report is available at <https://bticonsulting.com/bti-client-service-all-stars-2022>

Attorneys

Joshua G. Vincent

Service Areas

Appellate

Offices

Chicago