Hinshaw Partner Jorge Cazares Named to Negocios Now's "Who's Who in Hispanic Chicago Business-2022"

July 26, 2022

The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Jorge Cazares has been included in Negocios Now's "Who's Who in Hispanic Chicago Business-2022." The list recognizes notable Latino leaders across a range of industry sectors including business, law, finance, real estate, health care, and tech.

Cazares was one of twelve attorneys receiving recognition on the list. The 2022 edition of Negocios Now "Who's Who in Hispanic Business-2022" also celebrates the 15th anniversary of publication. Founded in 2007, Negocios Now is an Illinois-based Hispanic business publication, distributed nationally in digital format.

Cazares is a Chicago native, with a diverse litigation practice and extensive experience in both the public and private sectors. He was also the first Latino to serve as general counsel for the Chicago Housing Authority (CHA), the third-largest public housing agency in the country. Cazares was later appointed Chief Ethics Officer and Chief EEO Officer for the CHA.
