Anju Suresh Named to Minnesota Lawyer's 2022 Up & Coming Attorneys

September 22, 2022

The U.S. law firm Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Anju Suresh—an associate in the Minneapolis office—has been selected among Minnesota Lawyer's 2022 Up & Coming Attorneys. Suresh was one of twenty-six attorneys from across the state to receive recognition.

Minnesota Lawyer's 2022 Up & Coming Attorneys are in their first decade of practice and are selected based on "excellence in their field and adherence to the highest values of the profession."

A member of Hinshaw's commercial litigation practice group, Suresh represents clients ranging from individuals to large corporations in a wide variety of areas ranging from business and employment disputes to insurance and product liability matters. She also serves as a co-leader of Hinshaw's Asian Pacific American Affinity Network (APAAN), is an active member of the Minnesota Asian Pacific American Bar Association, and serves as a mentor to junior associates. Earlier this year, Suresh was also recognized as a Twin Cities Business 2022 Notable Emerging Star in Law.
