Hinshaw Insurance Law TV - Cybersecurity Part One: Data Breach Notification

September 29, 2022

Scott Seaman—Chicago-based partner and co-chair of Hinshaw's global Insurance Services Practice Group—hosts Hinshaw partner Annmarie Giblin in a discussion about data security plans for businesses and data breach notification. This is the first episode of a three-part series focusing on cybersecurity. In this episode, they cover:

- data security program essentials for companies,
- business to business data breach notification requirements, and
- the growing threat of malware
