

News

Hinshaw Insurance Law TV - Cybersecurity Part Two: The Rise in Cyber Negligence Cases

October 6, 2022

In the second episode of a three-part series focusing on cybersecurity, we discuss the recent spike in cyber negligence cases. In this episode, we cover:

- causes of action and types of cyber negligence cases,
- why these cases are increasing,
- risk mitigation strategies for companies, and
- state data privacy regulations and the California Privacy Protection Agency

View highlights from the program featuring Scott Seaman—Chicago-based partner and co-chair of Hinshaw's global Insurance Services Practice Group—hosting Hinshaw partner Annmarie Giblin by clicking on one of the video snippets, or watch the episode in its entirety by viewing the Full Video located at the bottom of the page. You can also view this and past episodes of Hinshaw Insurance Law TV on-demand on the Insurance & Reinsurance Multimedia page.

Attorneys

Scott M. Seaman

Service Areas

Privacy, Security & Artificial Intelligence

Offices

Chicago

New York