Tomislav Kuzmanovic and Andrew Trevino Featured Among the Federal Western District of Wisconsin Pro Bono Honor Society

October 10, 2022

The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Milwaukee-based partner Tomislav Kuzmanovic and associate Andrew Trevino are featured in the Federal Western District of Wisconsin Pro Bono Honor Society in recognition of their voluntary service in representing indigent plaintiffs pro bono in 2019-2020.

In addition to his pro bono work, Kuzmanovic handles a wide variety of business and commercial litigation, and has extensive experience in handling international arbitrations, in addition to the defense of multiple war crimes cases to verdict at the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia in The Hague, Netherlands. He has tried cases to verdict in state and federal courts in Wisconsin and handled appellate matters in the 7th, 9th and 11th Circuit Courts of Appeal. Kuzmanovic was also recognized as a Super Lawyer by Wisconsin Super Lawyers magazine from 2005 – 2012 and 2014 – 2020.

Trevino focuses his practice on the defense of commercial litigation matters and has extensive experience handling cases in state and federal courts and arbitration. He has experience in all phases of litigation, including handling cases through verdict and appeal.
