Katherine Coba Re-Appointed as Co-Chair of HNBA Litigation & Dispute Resolution Section

October 19, 2022

The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Katherine Coba has been re-appointed as Co-Chair of the Hispanic National Bar Association (HNBA) Litigation & Dispute Resolution Section for the 2022-2023 term.

The HNBA Litigation and Dispute Resolution Section serves HNBA members by furthering the development and improvement of litigation and dispute resolution issues by educating HNBA members on litigation skills and related professional responsibilities. The HNBA Litigation and Dispute Resolution Section seeks to facilitate the exploration of effective means of resolving disputes and assist Section members in elevating their personal and professional brand.

Katherine Coba represents businesses in complex commercial litigation in both state and federal courts in Florida. She previously served on the HNBA Region VIII Board of Directors from 2019 – 2022.
