Michael F. Henrick Inducted into the Chicago Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA)

December 15, 2022

The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Hinshaw partner Michael F. Henrick has been inducted into the Chicago Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) with the rank of Advocate, which requires having tried over 50 jury cases to verdict.

ABOTA is a national association of experienced trial lawyers and judges and serves to foster improvement in the ethical and technical standards of practice in the field. Membership is by invitation only and includes the top trial lawyers in any given region of the country. Members must have at least five years of active experience as trial lawyers, have tried at least ten civil jury trials to conclusion, and possess additional litigation experience.

Henrick is an experienced trial lawyer, with a practice focused on issues involving personal injury, professional liability, wrongful death and health care. He is also a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers.
