Maida Chinosi Appointed to the Board of Directors of the Puerto Rican Association for Human Development, Inc.

January 12, 2023

The U.S. law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Hinshaw partner Maida Chinosi has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Puerto Rican Association for Human Development, Inc. (PRAHD).

Established in 1974, PRAHD is a non-profit organization based in Perth Amboy, New Jersey. PRAHD was created to provide supportive services to disadvantaged Perth Amboy youth and has grown into a comprehensive human services agency that serves thousands of New Jersey residents. PRAHD is dedicated to developing human potential and promoting self-sufficiency through programs designed to improve the social, economic, health, and educational status of the community in a culturally sensitive environment.

Chinosi concentrates her practice on insurance coverage litigation and counseling. She handles a broad array of coverage matters, from large complex litigation to discrete focused disputes involving environmental liability, toxic tort, product liability, directors and officers liability, and construction defects claims. Chinosi's practice also includes counseling and representing corporate clients and domestic and international insurers on bad faith exposures, risk management, claims handling, and general business matters.
