Vincent Rizzo Appointed Vice President of the LAGBAC Executive Board

March 30, 2023

The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Vincent Rizzo has been appointed as Vice President of the LAGBAC Executive Board. Established in 1987, LAGBAC is Chicago's LGBTQ+ Bar Association and is one of the largest LGBTQ+ bar organizations in the country.

LAGBAC's membership includes lawyers, judges and other elected officials, law students, and other legal professionals. LAGBAC promotes the professional development of LGBTQ+ legal professionals and provides a supportive environment that encourages the exchange of ideas and community engagement.

Rizzo is an Illinois and California licensed attorney, representing private and public entities in litigation involving employment disputes, tort defense, and constitutional violations. He previously served as the LAGBAC Secretary and was recognized as a Notable LGBTQ Executive by Crain's Chicago Business in 2021.
