

News

Dominique Price Appointed to the Black Men Lawyers' Association Board of Directors

June 15, 2023

The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that attorney Dominique Price has been appointed to serve on the Board of Directors of the Black Men Lawyers' Association (BMLA). He was sworn into office in a ceremony on June 10, 2023.

BMLA is an organization of African American male lawyers, judges, law professors, and law students. The organization fosters network development and fellowship among its members, and is dedicated to addressing obstacles impacting African American males in the legal field. BMLA empowers members to effectuate positive change in bar associations and communities.

Price is a product liability and commercial litigation attorney with experience in a wide variety of consumer and industrial products and sectors. Prior to joining Hinshaw, Price practiced in entertainment and sports law representing professional athletes—leveraging his own experience as a former NFL player. He recently graduated from the Chicago Urban League's IMPACT Leadership Development Program as a 2023 Fellow and serves as on the Metro Board of Neighborhood Housing Services of Chicago.

Service Areas

Complex Tort & General
Casualty

Offices

Chicago