Daniel Robinson Appointed to Board of Directors of the Miami-Dade Bar Association Young Lawyer's Section

August 23, 2023

The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Daniel Robinson has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Young Lawyer's Section of the Miami-Dade Bar Association for the 2023-2024 term.

Founded in the early twentieth century and officially incorporated in 1920, the Miami-Dade Bar's goal is to support and inform the county's lawyers, as well as the public and the community at large. The Miami Dade Bar fosters members' professional development through networking opportunities, continuing legal education programs, and leadership development opportunities. The Young Lawyers Section of the Miami-Dade Bar includes over 1,300 members under the age of 36.

Robinson concentrates his practice on defending clients in complex business and insurance coverage disputes and a wide range of commercial and insurance matters. He also represents carriers at mediation and in court. Robinson received his B.A. from the University of Texas at Austin and his J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law.
