

News

Bill Schiller Named to DC-based Atlantic Council Experts' Coalition on Borders, Immigration, and Trade Facilitation

October 23, 2023

The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Bill Schiller has been appointed to serve on the DC-based Atlantic Council Experts' Coalition on Borders, Immigration, and Trade Facilitation.

The new coalition includes experts from the Atlantic Council, the Bipartisan Policy Center, the Homeland Security Experts Group, and others in the private and nonprofit sectors. The coalition aims to advance nonpartisan, pragmatic solutions to the United States' border and immigration challenges. To learn more, visit their website at atlanticcouncil.org.

Schiller practices in the area of U.S. immigration and nationality law. He represents corporations, universities, and individuals on various immigration matters. He also represents individuals and families in complex areas of immigration law, including asylum. He leads Hinshaw's Higher Education Immigration Team and, as a faculty member, teaches university coursework in the area of International Human Rights and U.S. Refugee Law.

Attorneys

William B. Schiller

Service Areas

Immigration

Labor & Employment

Offices

Chicago