November 15, 2023

Law360 Pulse recently interviewed Fort Lauderdale partner-in-charge Andrew Gordon regarding the latest attorney additions to the firm's Miami and Fort Lauderdale offices.

Gordon told Law360 Pulse that the Fort Lauderdale office currently includes more than 40 attorneys. He explained that growth in attorney headcount is driven in part by the needs of existing clients and also by new clients who have made the move with lateral hire attorneys.
